Dear Requester:

Reference is made to your Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Acts (FOIA/PA) request which was originally submitted to the United States Secret Service (USSS) on August 9, 2011, for information pertaining to Silk Road.

In reference to your request dated September 12, 2011, the USSS has conducted a reasonable search for responsive records. It appears, from a review of USSS main indices, that there are no records pertaining to your request that referenced in these indices. Enclosed is a copy of your original request.

Alternatively, if you deem our decision an adverse determination, you may exercise your appeal rights. Should you wish to file an administrative appeal, your appeal should be made in writing and received within sixty (60) days of the date of this letter, by writing to: Freedom of Information Appeal, Deputy Director, U.S. Secret Service, Communications Center, 245 Murray Lane, S.W., Building T-5, Washington, D.C. 20223. If you choose to file an administrative appeal, please explain the basis of your appeal and reference the case number listed above.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss this matter, please contact this office at (202) 406-5838. Please use the file number indicated above in all future correspondence with this office

Sincerely,

Subject: Re: Freedom of Information Request: silk road anonymous marketplace (uss)

Hi, This is a follow up to a request given number 20110586, copied below.

USSS,

I find it difficult to believe that the USSS has no record of Silk Road. The Silk Road Anonymous Marketplace is a well known internet marketplace for illegal drugs, guns, credit card fraud, etc.

I ask that you do an additional search, tasking the appropriate parts of your agency that handle such crimes.

Thank you very much.

Regards,
Jason Smathers
